

ACLU NATIONAL ADVOCACY INSTITUTE HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAM

ACLU 100

The ACLU National Advocacy Institute's High School Program will bring together a diverse group of students from across the US to participate in a week-long, firsthand learning experience for the next generation of social justice advocates. Students will explore the complex nature of issue advocacy, legal strategy, and real-world political decision making.

Key program elements:

- Electives taught by ACLU experts, lawyers, and advocates
- Seminars exploring social justice and civil liberties
- Campaign strategies to maximize impact for issues that drive you
- Capitol Hill Rally and meeting with your elected officials and their staff
- Next Generation Conference and Gala to mark the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the ACLU
