Please take a moment to read our terms and conditions. Close Up welcome participation on its programs without regard to gender, race, color, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin or disability.

I, the lead teacher/coordinator submitting this enrollment, have obtained all the approvals needed to participate in Empowering Female Voices. Further, I request that the students (Participants) I register be allowed to participate on your virtual program and agree to these terms:

- Empowering Female Voices will be using Zoom to collaborate for whole group sessions and breakouts. By registering for this program, I acknowledge that I have reviewed Zoom’s terms and privacy policies, and I give the Participants permission to use Zoom and all of its functions. While Close Up will follow Zoom’s recommended guidelines for securing sessions, Close Up is not responsible for any unapproved and/or unsolicited interference with the platform.

- Close Up may record sessions on Zoom and have the full authority to use, publish, and display Participants’ images and/or voices as it is contained in any recordings in connection with promoting or marketing the program as Close Up determines. The Participants release and indemnify Close Up from any and all claims by third parties or the participant in connection with the recordings.

- I understand that the program will require Participants to interact with other students and Close Up staff in a variety of settings. The Participants are ready, willing and able to participate, treat everyone with respect at all times and follow the program rules at all times. The program requires a level of education, maturity and independence of participants. The Participants must be capable of respectfully attending seminars, following instructions, and collaborating with peers during facilitated and non-facilitated sessions. I affirm that Participants are capable of meeting these requirements. If Participants are disruptive to the program or disrespectful to staff or peers during the program, Close Up reserves the right to suspend the student’s participation on program without providing a refund.

- I understand my registration and program payment is non-refundable after submitting payment.
