

2024 AMERICAN ENTERPRISE SUMMIT

WASHINGTON, D.C. | JULY 8-11, 2024

OVERVIEW

In partnership with the Close Up Foundation, the Horatio Alger Association's American Enterprise Summit for Middle School Scholars is an opportunity for rising eighth-grade students. This is a fully funded program in which students and teachers travel to Washington, gather with their peers from across the country, and discover and engage with successful leaders who attained their American Dream by overcoming adversity. Teachers can nominate ten students from their school to participate in the program.

Throughout the program, students will:

- Gain awareness of the opportunities available through civic and community engagement, entrepreneurship, and the free-enterprise system.
- Highlight the importance of the pursuit of the American Dream.
- Participate in study visits in the nation's capital, including memorials, museums, and Capitol Hill.
- Engage in a deliberation workshop focused on issues currently in Congress.
- Prepare themselves as future leaders who meet the challenges of the 21st-century workforce.

INCLUDED IN THE PROGRAM

- Airline tickets and tuition costs (covered by the Horatio Alger Association and booked by Close Up)
- Coach bus transportation to and from all activities in Washington, including airport transfers
- Daily meals and quality hotel accommodations (two students per room)

ABOUT CLOSE UP

Close Up is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, civic education organization that informs, inspires, and empowers young people to become active citizens. Since 1971, we have partnered with school districts nationwide to serve more than one million students and educators through experiential learning programs in our nation's capital and in local communities, professional development, and curriculum design and consulting. Our goal is to connect what students learn in class to the real world around them, help them articulate their own views and listen to those of others, and engage with people of different backgrounds with tolerance and understanding.

ABOUT HORATIO ALGER ASSOCIATION

Founded in 1947, the Horatio Alger Association of Distinguished Americans, Inc., is dedicated to the simple but powerful belief that hard work, honesty, and determination can conquer all obstacles. In 2009, the affiliated Horatio Alger Association of Canada was established. Both associations honor the achievements of outstanding leaders who have accomplished remarkable successes despite adversity by bestowing upon them the Horatio Alger Award and inducting them as lifetime members. Horatio Alger members support promising young people with the resources and confidence needed to overcome adversity in pursuit of their dreams through higher education.
